

Cassina Contract furnishes the 106 rooms of the Four Seasons Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC).

Both the hotel and furniture have been designed by New Yorker Adam D. Tihany, specialist in the hospitality sector.

14th November 2016. The Contract Division of Cassina has realized a furnishing project for the 106 rooms of the second Four Seasons Hotel in Dubai, located in the heart of the city's financial district. For this first boutique hotel of the renowned luxury hotel chain, Cassina Contract provided made-to-measure furniture by New York designer Adam D. Tihany that stands out for its high quality, versatility and fine materials.

Its rooms, spacious and designed down to the finest of details, have wood panelled walls, precious carpets and chandeliers with multi-faceted metallic pendants.

Multi-purpose furniture with a strong identity to communicate Dubai's vitality.

The furniture, produced by Cassina Contract, was designed and engineered specifically for this project and includes beds with padded headboards, sinuous sofas and multi-purpose desks that, depending on the guests' needs, can be transformed into meeting tables. The decor has a unique identity and fits perfectly with the other areas of the hotel. The result is an atmosphere that embodies the real essence of the city, reflecting its dynamism and transformation.

Tailor-made design for a sophisticated clientele.

All of the interiors of the rooms and the public areas were designed by Tihany like a tailored suit to satisfy the needs of guests with high expectations. Each space has been studied with attention to create a personal place where a sense of inclusive exclusiveness pervades the room. The chosen finishes, the quality of the materials and the attention to detail further characterise the space in terms of prestige and refinement.

Cassina Contract: consolidated experience in the hospitality sector.

Cassina Contract has gained notoriety for its extraordinary work in the hospitality sector. Its name is linked to some of the most iconic hotels of the 20th century such as the legendary Delano in Miami, the Peninsula in Hong Kong as well as more recent hotels like the Hotel Excelsior Gallia in Milan and the Conservatorium Hotel in Amsterdam.

Working with the most prestigious hotel chains, since the outset, Cassina Contract had have a full grasp of all the parameters involved in extremely complex hospitality projects. The approach it follows combines a high artisanal care, sartorial design and project management skills.

Photos available for the press:

